

The Mountain

Presents its Annual December Peace Program

In the Midst of Violence & War . . . a song of peace

with Stefan Andre Waligur

December 5 – 7, 2008

$143 Adults and $90 Youth/Students to age 25

Commuter Rate – $113
(program and meals only)

The Mountain is honored to welcome internationally renowned contemplative, musician and composer Stefan Andre Waligur. With Stefan's gentle guidance we'll engage in dialog about peacemaking and the nature of violence. Stefan's calling is to lead gatherings in original song/chanting, in silence and in conversation and storytelling on peacemaking.

We'll sing new songs for peace and justice, share stories, learn of some well known and some lesser known peacemakers who are inspiring us today. Through music, nature, laughter, silence and thought provoking conversational engagement, we will expand our own circle of awareness and peaceful influence.

No musical experience is required to participate. If you play an instrument you are encouraged to bring it along! As a special treat, we will make music for peace with the Senior High Youth Conference participants on Saturday night.

Make space in your busy life for spiritual reflection and renewal at The Mountain!

About Stefan Andre Waligur . . .

Since September 11, 2001, Stefan has led gatherings of people in the United States, Europe and Israel/Palestine in singing new songs of peace and justice. A friend of the Community of Taize and the Community of Plum Village in France, Stefan brings a contemplative perspective and an interfaith sensitivity to his music and his presentation of peacemaking. He has just returned from living in Ireland for two years where he has composed new music for peace based on Celtic melodies. His CD "Blessed are The Peacemakers" and songbook Songs of Peace are available in books stores in the U.S. and at www.songspeace.net .
