

Scott Dillard

Board Leadership Portfolio

Background:

Originally from Gillespie, Illinois. I have been a college professor teaching speech and theatre for close to twenty years. I have a Ph.D. in performance studies from Southern Illinois University. I am also an ordained interfaith minister and I serve Unitarian Universalist churches throughout the southeast.

What attracted you to The Mountain?

I first came to the Mountain for the Congregational Leadership School and then became a faculty member of the school and eventually the Dean of the School. About the same time I started going to the Mountain to attend the Gay Spirit Visions Conferences.

What would you like to accomplish in your Board role?

To be of use in any way I can as a leader and supporter of the overall efforts of The Mountain.

About your family:

Partner: Chris Lamphere. Daughter: Katrina Lamphere age 25.

What do you find most important in life?

As an educator I find that what I most want to foster in this world is a sense of compassion as it is felt, shared, and modeled.
